LEADERSHIP LICENSURE PROGRAM

All students are expected to be in attendance at every session and to participate for the full duration of every session.

Because of the limited number of sessions in the Leadership Licensure Program, I understand that this program has stringent attendance and participation expectations of its candidates. I am expected to

In signing this contract, I acknowledge that:

- if I am late for a session or leave early more than twice, I must meet with a representative of MSSAA (the "dean of students") and may be put on probation.
- if I am absent more than one time, I must meet with a representative of MSSAA (the "dean of students") and may be put on probation.

Missed work and assignments

If I miss a session, am tardy, or leave early, I am expected to contact fellow students or the instructor to get information and assignments that I missed.

Dismissal from the Program

In signing this contract I acknowledge that if I am unable to meet the participation expectations, I may be asked to leave the program. If this happens in the first three months of the program, a portion of the tuition will be returned.
