

Evaluation Conference

Friday, September 12, 2003
MSSAA Conference Center
33 Forge Pkwy ~ Franklin, MA

This conference will include up-to-date information on the future of evaluation as a part of the licensing and re-licensing processes. Mr. Flaherty will also discuss the "No Child Left Behind" act, and highlight the evaluative considerations implied by that document. This is an excellent opportunity to gain practical insight about methods of evaluating efficiently and within real-world time constraints, as well as to catch up on recent developments in the area.

Topics to be covered include:

- Preparation for the evaluation process
- The pre-observation conference
- Techniques of observation
- Observing standards-based classes
- The process of reflection
- The preparation and presentation of useful and valid recommendations
- Conferencing techniques
- The role of evaluation in licensing
- Goal-oriented evaluation
- Introducing portfolio evaluation
- Evaluation for Licensure
- Outside evaluation information - its sources, uses, and limitations

✦ Cancellation Policy: Cancellations received up to 72 hours before Workshop will be honored. ✦
If you do not cancel and do not attend, you are responsible for full payment.
