This session is designed for educators who are looking for a framework to create a fully inclusive school based on the guidelines from the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education Inclusive Schools Handbook. Participants will learn the foundations necessary, resources available and what you can do as 'one person' to support the success of ALL students with diverse levels of physical, behavioral, social and emotional and intellectual abilities. Resources to make your school a trauma sensitive school will be shared along with some successful school stories from Massachusetts schools.

Participants will develop an understanding of:

- Inclusive Education in Massachusetts
- Vision of a Trauma Sensitive School
- Tools/protocols available to assist in creating a fully inclusive school
- Systems and processes to implement in your school district
- Review of the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Inclusive Schools Handbook tools
