Co-Teaching and Inclusion have been around for decades. This workshop will focus on delivering service to ALL students in an inclusive setting and create an understanding of best practices for teaching in a co-teaching environment.

While reviewing the key elements to a successful co-teaching model, you as a school/district will review the six approaches to co-teaching and strategies for instruction that support the DESE self-assessment rubric focusing on Standard II...Teaching ALL Students.

Participants will develop an understanding of:

- The six models of co-teaching
- How to best utilize the DESE Educator Effectiveness Guidebook for Inclusive Practice
- Roles and responsibilities of each professional in the classroom
- The 'key ingredients' necessary for implementation and re-structuring of the co-teaching model in your school/district
- The alignment of co-teaching lesson plans to Standard II –"Teachings All Students"
- This workshop will focus on the key components of co-teaching approaches and models and align the student focus on 'teaching ALL students" using the DESE
